READING-FUN FOR ALL!

Storytime Workshop

Saturday, May 6

9:30am-3:30pm, FTB Auditorium

Join us for a hands-on workshop that will give the training you need to become competent and confident with planning and implementing storytimes for children.

We'll cover everything from how to pick out books, to effective reading aloud strategies, to including other supportive elements. This workshop is open to any interested adult.

Registration is required. Space is limited, so sign up early! To register or learn more, contact Anastasia at 239-5641 or smyles@amespubliclibrary.org.

FREE COMIC BOOK DAY

Saturday, May 6

Stop by the Library or Mayhem Collectibles for your free comic book!

GET WILD & READ

Join the Library's summer reading program for adults starting June 1!

AN EVENING WITH THE AUTHOR

Michael Morwood

Monday, May 1

7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Michael Morwood, adult faith minister and author of Tomorrow's Catholic—Understanding God and Jesus in a New Millennium, will speak about contemporary Christianity. Morwood inspires Christians to examine what they believe and why they believe it—what they imagine and why they imagine it the way they do. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

Anna Baltzer

Tuesday, May 2

7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Anna Baltzer, author of Witness in Palestine: Journal of a Jewish American Woman in the Occupied Territories, will present photographs and stories from her work documenting human rights abuses and nonviolent resistance in the West Bank with the International Women's Peace Service. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

PEEL CONNECTIONS

Other Voices / Other Views

Sponsored by Alliance for Global Justice, Ames High Progressive Club, and Ames Public Library

The Take

Wednesday, May 10, 7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Directed by journalist Avi Lewis and written by author Naomi Klein, The Take follows Argentina's radical new movement of occupied businesses: groups of workers who are claiming the country's bankrupt workplaces and running them without bosses. (2004, 87 minutes followed by discussion)

Frankensteer

Wednesday, May 24, 7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Frankensteer is a disturbing documentary that investigates dangers to human health posed by feedlot-raised beef and discusses how recent changes in inspection rules have shifted the responsibility for food safety. (2005, 48 minutes followed by discussion)

Confronting the New World Order

Sponsored by the local branch of the John Birch Society and Ames Public Library

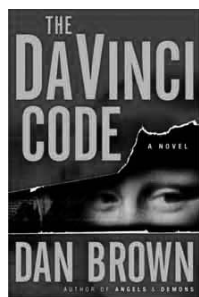

The Privileged Planet: The Search for Purpose in the Universe

Monday, May 15, 7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Through computer animation, interviews with scientists, and spectacular images of Earth and the cosmos, this film explores the connection between our capacity to survive and our ability to observe and understand the universe. (2004, 60 minutes followed by discussion)

THE DA VINCI CODE: FACT, FICTION, OR FAKE

Wednesday, May 17

7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Four Iowa State University faculty members will discuss how realistic the highly popular book "The Da Vinci Code" is in a panel discussion including Michael Bailey, assistant professor of History; David Hunter, professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies; John Cunnally, associate professor of Art and Design; and Gloria Betcher, program coordinator of Technical Communication.

This panel discussion explores issues of accuracy and responsibility that arise when an author of fiction incorporates elements of European history and culture and claims to be presenting readers with facts.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Our summer activities begin in June and we need many volunteers to help make it a success. Volunteers will get the chance to have fun helping with crafts and story times. This program requires a six week commitment.

We also have several Home Delivery routes needing coverage by volunteers. Help is needed to make monthly deliveries and/or to help select for delivery sites. This would require a minimum of one hour per month, depending on the route.

If you are interested in volunteering at the Library, please contact Sarah at (515) 239-5663.

DEAR FRIENDS

Greetings Page One readers and Friends of the Ames Public Library members!

Amazing how time flies when you are having fun doing things for the Library! Not only have Friends members like you helped to make the two Friends used book sales great successes, you have also made it possible for the Friends to help add a lot of very popular materials, such as DVD's and manga, to the Library's collection.

You have also continued to sponsor great reading and discussion programs like "Let's Talk About It" and the "Great Books Reading and Discussion Series." In addition to these programs, your Friends memberships have helped to promote literacy throughout Ames by providing funds for "Books For Babies" and Literacy Changes Lives; the Story County Literacy program.

You have helped to sponsor great activities such as the "APL Unplugged" and "Bookends at the Bandshell" concerts. Your support has also made it possible to help the Library with things patrons may not even realize are Friends projects, such as the Project Smyles Kick-off Party, a CD/DVD cleaner to help keep our digital entertainment "skip-free," and a popcorn machine!

Thank you Friends of the Ames Public Library. Your membership and support really make a difference!

Just a reminder that the Friends annual meeting will be held Monday, May 1st in the Library's second floor Board room. All Friends members are welcome. Below is the slate of officers proposed for approval at the May meeting as well as a new Friends board member.

Go library!
