EVENTS AT THE

AMES PUBLIC LIBRARY
www.amespubliclibrary.org

An Evening with the Author:

Benjamin Percy
Monday, November 8
7pm, Community Room

Join us for an evening with Benjamin Percy, assistant professor at ISU and author of The Wilding. In this novel, a family hunting trip pushes a father to the limit with the reckless taunting of his own father, the physical demands of the terrain, and the menacing evidence of the presence of bear. Books will be available for purchase.

Sponsored by AgArts and Ames Public Library (APL).

Conversations in English

Friday, November 12
3pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Non-native English speakers are invited to practice talking in English in a comfortable, relaxed setting with library staff and volunteers.

Sponsored by YWCA Ames-ISU and APL.

Crochet & Knitting Group

Saturday, November 13
11am-12:30pm, FTB Auditorium
Saturday, November 27
11am-12:30pm, Founders Suite

All ages are invited to crochet and knit with us. Everyone is welcome, from beginners to experts. Bring your project and supplies if you have them.

Speak Up!

Monday, November 15
7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Come learn how to be an active participant in your health care. Experts from McFarland Clinic will discuss the importance of being actively involved with your healthcare team, how you can help prevent medical errors, and how to access your health record and communicate with your doctor's office.

Sponsored by McFarland Clinic and APL.

Tech Talk: Learn a Language Online

Wednesday, November 10
7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Are you interested in learning a new language? Come hear about Byki, our exciting new online language program. Byki representative Paul Gillespie will show you how Byki works and why it's effective.

Baltimore Consort

Saturday, November 13 at 1pm, Atrium

Enjoy a special preview of Baltimore Consort's upcoming performance as part of the Ames Town and Gown series. Members of the Baltimore Consort will perform samples of their repertoire, answer questions, and talk about early music and instruments from around the globe. CDs will be available for purchase.

Sponsored by Ames Town & Gown and the Friends of the Ames Public Library.

Flutes and More

Sunday, November 28 at 2pm, Atrium

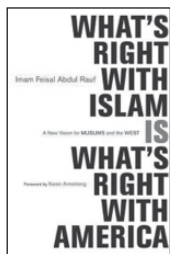

Enjoy an afternoon of live holiday music performed by Flutes and More, a flute choir made up of ISU students and community members. There will be free refreshments.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Ames Public Library.

BOOK DISCUSSION

Tuesdays, November 9 & 16 at 7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium
Tuesday, November 30 at 7pm, Founders Suite

You're invited to a three-part facilitated discussion of the book What's Right With Islam IS What's Right With America by Imam Feisal Abdul Rauf, religious leader of the controversial Cordoba House project in New York City. In this 2004 book, Rauf seeks to "analyze the divide between the Muslim world and the United States and identify what is precious in the heritage of each." If you would like to participate, please register at the Information Desk. A limited number of free copies of the book will be available.

Sponsored by Ames Friends Meeting, Darul Arqum Islamic Center, and APL.

PEEL CONNECTIONS

Other Voices/Other Views:

Blue Gold: World Water Wars

Wednesday, November 17
7pm, Farwell T. Brown Auditorium

Based on the book Blue Gold by Maude Barlow and Tony Clark, this film examines the problems created by the privatization and commoditization of water. (2009; 90 minutes)

Sponsored by the Alliance for Global Justice and APL.

Second Look:

Frozen River

Tuesday, November 30
7pm, FTB Auditorium

Driven by financial hardship during the Christmas season, two women from different walks of life make extra money by working together to smuggle immigrants into the U.S. across the frozen St. Lawrence River.

(2008; 97minutes; MPAA Rating R)

BOOK GROUPS

Mystery Lovers Book Club
Wednesday, November 3
12pm, Board Room

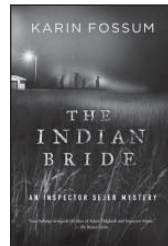

Mystery lovers are invited to this book club to talk about books by a selected author. This month, we'll discuss books by Laurie R. King. (Next month's author will be S. J. Rozan.)

Let's Talk About It

Tuesday, November 16, 7pm, Community Room

Join Let's Talk About It to read and discuss works chosen from the semester's theme: "Nordic Mysteries and Thrillers." We'll continue the fall series with The Indian Bride by Karin Fossum. Please call (515) 239-5656 or visit the Library's Information Desk to register for this book group.

Books @ Noon

Wednesday, November 17, 12pm, Founders Suite

Drop in to share what you've read recently—fiction or nonfiction—and hear about what everyone else is reading. Be prepared to give a brief description and your opinion about one or two books you've listened to or read.

Great Books

Sunday, November 21, 2pm, Community Room

Discuss literary classics with materials from the Great Books Foundation. This month, we will discuss "Culture and Anarchy" (selection) by Matthew Arnold from Great Conversations 4. To sign up for this series, visit the Library's Information Desk or call (515) 239-5656.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Youth Programming—Booklets/Chapters:

Volunteers are needed each Wednesday from 2:15-4:15. Volunteers will assist with setting up for the children's programming; assist with instructing children on a simple craft or activity; and cleaning up afterward.

Home Delivery: A volunteer is needed on the first Friday morning of each month to deliver books to library customers who reside at a local assisted living facility. Deliveries generally take 1-1½ hours. For more information, contact Sarah at sbohlke@amespubliclibrary.org or (515) 239-5663.
