Finding Winnie: The True Story of the World's Most Famous Bear
by Lindsay Mattick
illustrated by Sophie Blackall

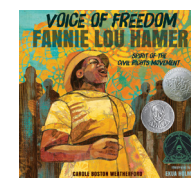

A woman tells her young son the true story of how his great-great-grandfather, Captain Harry Colebourn, rescued and learned to love a bear cub in 1914 as he was on his way to take care of soldiers' horses during World War I, and the bear became the inspiration for A.A. Milne's Winnie-the-Pooh.

The Caldecott Medal

The Caldecott Medal was named in honor of nineteenth-century English illustrator Randolph Caldecott. It is awarded annually by the Association for Library Service to Children, a division of the American Library Association, to the artist of the most distinguished American picture book for children.

Most of the Caldecott Medal winners can be found in the picture book section of the Library, but there are exceptions. Please check the catalog for location and formats available. Feel free to ask a Librarian if you need assistance.
