Sunday: 1pm - 5pm

For more locations, see the Bookmobile Schedule inside this newsletter!
Downtown Ames is teaming up with the Smithsonian’s Hometown Teams traveling exhibition to celebrate the many ways sports shape our lives. Take your game to the next level with a series of presentations and a local display at Ames Public Library!

"Hometown Teams: How Sports Shape America" is part of Museum on Main Street, a unique collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service, state humanities councils across the nation, and local host institutions. Locally, the exhibit is sponsored by the Ames Convention and Visitor's Bureau community grant, Ames Tribune, City of Ames, Hunziker Realty, Hunziker Property Management, HCS Builders, Iowa State University Athletics Department, Mediacom, Wells Fargo Bank, and the Ames Chamber of Commerce.

Ames Public Library connects you to the world of ideas through diverse and inclusive resources and programs. We welcome program proposals via our website at bit.ly/APLprogram.

6 ON 6 BASKETBALL

Display:
September 29 - November 11
The Gallery

The year 2018 marks the 25th anniversary of the end of 6-on-6 girls' basketball in Iowa. To commemorate and reflect on this uniquely Iowan sport, the Iowa Women's Archives and Sport Studies faculty in the Department of American Studies at the University of Iowa have collaborated to create a touring exhibition that tells the story of 6-on-6 basketball in Iowa and the girls and women that played it.

Gallery Talk:
Saturday, October 6
10-10:30am, Danfoss Room

The Gallery Talk will provide an opportunity to hear about the exhibition from one of its curators and to learn more about the artifacts it features.

Collecting Stories & Photos
Saturday, October 6
10:30am-2pm, Danfoss Room

Established in 1992, the Louise Noun – Mary Louise Smith Iowa Women's Archives collects and makes available historical materials that tell the stories of Iowa women from all walks of life. In an effort to broaden its sport-related collections, representatives from the Archives and Sport Studies faculty from the University of Iowa Department of American Studies are organizing a collection weekend.

Please stop by to tell us your stories, ask questions about donating historical materials, or to donate documents, photographs, or other items related to 6-on-6 basketball or other sporting experiences.

MORE THAN JUST A GAME

Tuesday, October 9
7pm, Auditorium

Join the African American Museum of Iowa for "More Than Just a Game." Iowa's athletes have long impacted their teams, communities and sports they played, but African Americans did so while facing off against more than just the opposing team. They fought for the right to equal treatment on and off the field.

Learn about amazing people such as Iowan and Olympian Thomas Hill, Drake University athlete Johnny Bright and his effect on the football helmet, and members of the Buxton Wonders, Iowa's Negro Leagues team. This program is free and perfect for everyone.

DAN GABLE: A WRESTLING LIFE

Wednesday, October 17
6pm, Auditorium

Wrestling legend Dan Gable will talk about the sport and his life. Gable is a retired Olympic wrestler and coach best known for his tenure as head coach at the University of Iowa where he won 15 NCAA team titles between 1976-1997. His latest book, A Wrestling Life: The Inspiring Stories of Dan Gable, will be available for purchase and signing.

HOW IOWA MET BASEBALL: THE MYTHS THE HISTORY THE PLAYERS

Monday, October 22
7pm, Auditorium

Join us for a presentation about the myths regarding the “invention” of baseball, the origins and evolution of the early game in the United States, how the Civil War played a role in accelerating the spread of the game, the very first mention of the game’s arrival in Iowa in 1858, and how it caught on.

Baseball historian John Liepa’s extensive baseball memorabilia, including baseball cards, will also be on display.
Films at the Library

Movie Night: A Fantastic Woman
Thursday, October 11
6:30pm, Auditorium

Join us for a free showing of the 2017 Academy Award winner for Best Foreign Language Film. When Marina’s older boyfriend dies unexpectedly, the transgender twentysomething waitress and aspiring singer faces discrimination and hostility from both her partner’s family and government officials while also contending with her devastating grief.

Reel Connections on the Environment
Look and See: A Portrait of Wendell Berry
Monday, October 15
6:30pm, Auditorium

Divergent stories from residents of Wendell Berry’s home county in Kentucky illustrate the changes made in rural communities by the capital-intensive model of industrial agriculture. Filmed across the seasons in the farming cycle, Look & See blends observational scenes of farming life and interviews with farmers and community members with evocative, carefully framed shots of the surrounding landscape.

This film captures how the evolution of Henry County, KY, continues to influence this farmer, activist, and author.

Supported by the Ames Public Library Friends Foundation.

Asia in Film
"The Ancient and the Modern - China"
Tuesday, October 23
6:30pm, Rotary Room

Watch selections from a collection of documentaries that includes many facets of China—its culture, arts, traditions, economic reform, and more.

Special Events

The Klan: The White Cancer
Tuesday, October 2
7pm, Auditorium

Join us for a fascinating presentation and discussion from TRACES Center for History and Culture. Michael Luick-Thrams will share stories behind the three waves of America’s terroristic hydra, with emphasis on the Second Wave, which in the 1920s stormed the American Heartland but was less anti-African American than rabidly anti-Catholic and -immigrant. Mostly-white Iowa had a surprisingly high rate of Klan membership, yet later it was all but erased from public memory.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and TRACES Center for History and Culture. This program is supported by Humanities Iowa and the National Endowment for the Humanities. Supported by the Ames Public Library Friends Foundation.

Watergate 45 Years Later: What Have We Learned?
Monday, October 8
8pm, ISU Memorial Union

This month, the Iowa State University Library Special Collections and University Archives acknowledges the receipt of the Edward M. Mezvinsky Papers. He was a member of the U.S. House Judiciary Committee during the Watergate hearings.

Des Moines Register Opinion Editor Kathie Obradovich will moderate a panel to discuss lessons learned from Watergate and how they apply today. Participants include Pulitzer Prize Winner Nick Kotz; Mr. Edward M. Mezvinsky, member of the U.S. House of Representatives from 1973 to 1977 for the First Congressional District of Iowa; and Mr. Jonathan Yarowsky, former general counsel to the U.S. House Judiciary Committee. This program is part of the ‘The Iowa State University Lectures Program.

Provided in collaboration with Ames Public Library, Iowa State University Committee on Lectures (funded by Student Government), Iowa State University Department of History, Iowa State University Department of Political Science, and Iowa State University Library.
2018 Future Ready Iowa Regional Summit
Tuesday, October 9
9:30am-3:30pm, Auditorium
Educators, business leaders, and those interested in the topic of preparing communities for future employment are invited to a day-long summit as part of Future Ready Iowa.
Registration is requested at www.futurereadyiowa.gov/summit.
Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library, Ames Chamber of Commerce, Area Chamber of Commerce Marshalltown, and Iowa Works Central Iowa.

Compassionate Self-Communication: How to Create a Solid Foundation for Interpersonal Dialogue
Saturday, October 20
10am-12pm, Auditorium
In our daily interactions with each other we all find ourselves in a position to listen and to be listened to. When listening and being listened to is done well, we experience the pleasure and joy of feeling seen, acknowledged, and understood. In this program we will identify the sources of fear and how they get in the way of mindful listening and learn how to apply self-compassion to dissolve your fears as you navigate your journey of mindful listening. The program will include interactive activities for participants.

Can I Read That? Free Access to Research Online
Wednesday, October 24
7pm, Rotary Room
Have you ever wanted to read up on a historical event, medical procedure, or research study, but not been able to access the information? This workshop, presented by Abbey Elder, will focus on ways the Ames community can freely access data, reports, and research articles through Open Access publications, free research available to the public online. You will leave the workshop with tools you can use to access the most recent research in agriculture, health sciences, education, and more! Abbey Elder is the Open Access & Scholarly Communication Librarian at the Iowa State University Library.
Provided in collaboration Ames Public Library and Iowa State University Library.

Big Bluestem Audubon Society Presentation
3rd Thursday of Each Month
7pm, Auditorium
Iowa is roughly 97% private land, making it the bulk of the wildlife habitat in the state, and making private landowners the most important habitat and wildlife managers! This month, Stephanie Shepherd will share some of the actions you can take in your yard and garden to make it a haven for wildlife, especially in urban/suburban areas. Shepherd is a biologist with Iowa DNR’s Wildlife Diversity Program and has formerly worked with wildlife in both Missouri and Virginia.
Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and the Big Bluestem Audubon Society.

Genealogy Plus
3rd Wednesday of Each Month
10am, Auditorium
Librarian Mary Logsdon will help us prepare for our November research trip to the Iowa State Historical Library’s vast genealogy collections. To make the most of any trip to a research library, planning is a must! Learn how to locate resources online and plan your research in advance.
For more genealogy events, see “Computer & Research Help Genealogy Group” on page 9.
Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and the Story County Genealogical Society.
