BLACK LIVES MATTER

Fashion, Liberation, and the Fight for Freedom

Exhibit: Dec. 4-16, Grand Staircase Exhibit Space

Open House: Thursday, December 5
at 6pm, Lobby

Presentation: Thursday, December 5
at 7pm, Auditorium

Explore the history of the Black Lives Matter movement and its relationship to politics, activism, and fashion through an exhibit created by Iowa State University students.

Using historic and cultural methodologies, the exhibition highlights the different ways clothing, fashion, appearance, and styles have been an example of resistance, rebellion, and negotiations of Black politics historically and today.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and Iowa State University College of Human Sciences Department of Apparel, Events, & Hospitality Management.

Learn at the Library

Climate Crisis: Facts To Action On Fire (57min)

Wednesday, December 4, at 6:30pm, Auditorium

Gather with community members to not only learn from experts why the climate is in crisis, but also to discuss actions we can take in our own lives.

In this YouTube video of a Politics and Prose event, bestselling author Naomi Klein talks with Betsy Reed, Editor-in-Chief of The Intercept, as well as actress and activist Jane Fonda about her book, On Fire: The (Burning) Case for a Green New Deal.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library, the Ames Climate Action Team, and The Green Umbrella at Iowa State University. Supported by the Ames Public Library Friends Foundation.

McNurlen Award Presenters

Monday, December 9
6:30pm, Auditorium

Iowa State University students in the Department of Natural Resource Ecology and Management who are recipients of the Dr. Keith McNurlen Award will make presentations about their research.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and the Ames Chapter of the Izaak Walton League.

Redefining Math

Wednesday, December 11
7pm, Auditorium

Do you hate math? Do you dread helping your child with math homework?

Teens and adults are invited to a workshop to learn about mathematics and how your negative experiences impact your learning.

The workshop will be presented by Michael Young, an Associate Professor of Mathematics at Iowa State University, and Juergen Kritschgau, a fourth year Mathematics PhD student at Iowa State University.

Onion Creek Band and Ames Ukulele Group Holiday Concert

Sunday, December 15
2-3:30pm, Auditorium

Come to the Library for a free concert for all ages. This holiday performance is part happy listening and part sing- and play-along. Bring a ukulele if you have one and join the fun!

Onion Creek is Ames' longest lived oldtime music band. They play for Onion Creek Cloggers and host and play for community potlucks and barn dances. Count on toe-tapping tunes and delightful songs from them.

Ames Ukulele Group (AUG) is Ames' newest ukulele band. It's makeup includes attorneys, builders, artists, engineers, secretaries, teachers, and students from all walks of life.
