HOMETOWN TEAMS: 6 ON 6 BASKETBALL EXHIBIT

September 29 - November 11 in The Gallery

The year 2018 marks the 25th anniversary of the end of 6-on-6 girls' basketball in Iowa. To commemorate and reflect on this uniquely Iowan sport, the Iowa Women's Archives and Sport Studies faculty in the Department of American Studies at the University of Iowa have collaborated to create a touring exhibition that tells the story of 6-on-6 basketball in Iowa and the girls and women that played it.

This display is part of the Hometown Teams event in downtown Ames featuring a traveling exhibition from the Smithsonian Institute.

*"Hometown Teams: How Sports Shape America" is part of Museum on Main Street, a unique collaboration between the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service, state humanities councils across the nation, and local host institutions. Locally, the exhibit is sponsored by the Ames Convention and Visitor's Bureau community grant, Ames
Tribune, City of Ames, Hunziker Realty, Hunziker Property Management, HCS Builders, Iowa State University Athletics Department, Mediacom, Wells Fargo Bank, and the Ames Chamber of Commerce.*

Free Learning Exchange

Saturday, November 10

9:15am-3:45pm (Sign in at 9am)

Auditorium

Sign up for a free day of learning, listening, and courageous conversations about child welfare. We will explore how institutional and structural racism impact decisions, policies, and practices in child welfare and the perpetuation of stereotypes about children and families of color.

Come away from this eye-opening day with ideas for how you can help ensure equitable treatment for children of color in Iowa's child welfare system.

Registration required by November 5 through the Library's calendar at www.amespubliclibrary.org. Lunch is provided.

Curriculum meets the requirements for the award of 6.0 SW CEUs & 5.0 foster parent credit hours.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library, Ames Human Relations Commission, Iowa Department of Human Services, and Inclusive Ames.

Black Lives Matter:

Fashion, Liberation, and the Fight for Freedom

Exhibit: November 28 - December 11, Library Lobby

Event: Tuesday, December 4

Reception at 6pm, Library Lobby

Presentation at 7pm, Auditorium

Explore the history of the Black Lives Matter movement and its relationship to politics, activism and fashion through an exhibit created by Iowa State University students.

Using historic and cultural methodologies, the exhibition highlights the different ways clothing, fashion, appearance, and styles have been an example of resistance, rebellion, and negotiations of Black politics historically and today.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and Iowa State University College of Human Sciences Department of Apparel, Events, & Hospitality Management.

"The Gauntlet Has Been Thrown:" Newspapers, Op-eds, and American Responses to Antisemitism

Monday, November 5
7pm, Auditorium

In 1940, there were nearly 1,900 daily newspapers in the United States read and shared by millions of Americans. These periodicals give us a glimpse into the intense struggles in the American heartland surrounding arguments promoting racism, discrimination, antisemitism, and isolationism during the 1930s and 1940s.

Eric Schmalz, community manager for the History Unfolded project at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, will talk about the role antisemitism played in the general American cultural landscape and how ordinary Americans reacted.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library, Ames Historical Society, and the Iowa State University Department of History. This program is made possible by the Campus Outreach Lecture Program of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies, supported by the Leonard and Sofie Davis Fund. Supported by the Ames Public Library Friends Foundation.

International Friendship Fair

Saturday, November 17
2-4pm, Auditorium

All ages are invited to experience games, crafts, music, stories, and more from around the world. Volunteers will share items from their cultures in a fun and educational way. Children and adults can take advantage of this "safe space" to ask people about their cultures and gain inter-cultural understanding.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and YWCA Ames-ISU.
